IMPORTANT NOTES

1. Please include all the countries / jurisdictions in which you may be resident for tax purposes. For example, a Tax Resident in Singapore as defined by Income Tax Act (Cap. 134), Section 2 in relation to an individual, means a person, who in the year preceding the year of assessment, resides in Singapore except for such temporary absences therefrom as may be reasonable and not inconsistent with a claim by such person to be resident in Singapore, and includes a person who is physically present or who exercises an employment (other than as a director of a company) in Singapore for 183 days or more during the year preceding the year of assessment.
 - (a) Regulations based on OECD Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") require CGS-CIMB Securities to collect and report certain information about an account holder's tax residence status, and if applicable, the tax residence status of each natural person that is a Controlling Person. Please note that CGS-CIMB Securities may be legally obliged to report information provided by and other financial information about your financial account(s) to the tax authorities in which your account(s) are maintained. In turn, the local tax authorities may exchange the reported information with the tax authorities in the country or countries in which you are a tax resident.
 - (b) As a financial institution, CGS-CIMB Securities does not provide tax advice to its customers. If you have any questions about determining your tax residency status, please contact a professional Tax Adviser or visit the OECD website: <https://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/>.
2. You can find summaries of defined terms and other terms in the CRS Individual Self-Certification Form available at <https://www.itradecimb.com.sg/app/articles/others/CRSIndividual.pdf>.

I declare, warrant and agree that all information submitted in this application are true, accurate in all respects. Any inaccurate or incomplete information provided by me may affect the assessment of my account.
